Last month's business:

- Roads update – results from the survey not here. Enforcement still occurring. TMR meeting coming up.
- Deck update – floor done, roof to go on shortly. The next grant will almost finish it.
- Small Halls festival update – will advertise more after Halloween gig. Performers: Vance Gilbert from Boston and Liz Stringer from Melbourne.
- Halloween gig – P&C doing the food. Rob R putting a band together. Mike & Liz organizing trick or treat.

- Calendar update – photos chosen by committee and ready to be sent off.
- Jinibara – further weeding, plants being propagated, trees being aged, artist work finishing off. Hopefully ready by Naidoc Week next year.

General business:

- Councilor Grimwade – involved with bush fire season awareness. Mt Glorious getting a generator and community escape pack – could be something similar for Mt Nebo? Tender clarification for road works next week so work could start a few weeks later. Ann requested council to remove dead tree on Darcy Kelly Road, and to place an advertisement regarding Small Halls Festival in Grimwade Gazette.
- Seath Holswich, Independent Candidate for Pine Rivers – has a website and fb page, was Assistant Minister for Mines (LNP), against Adani Mine and development of Galilea Basin. Lives in Warner and wants to engage with the local community.
- Stop Adani Group – group formed in March, looking at broader issue of climate change. Successful door knock of 120 responses; have met with Nikki Boyd and presented results to her; National Day of Action this Sat, Crosby Park, Albion. Planning a fundraising music night to assist the aboriginal group in their court case next March against Adani. Meeting agreed to waver the hall hire fee for Sat 18 Nov.
- Working Bee to finish the Blue Room before Halloween – Sun 15 Oct.

Meeting closed: 8:45pm
