General Business:

- Pubnight Friday 7/4/2017 Peri Peri Chicken, The Life of Brian.
- White ants and extras added about $2,200-00 extra to this round of renovations. (changing the down pipes, extra wall sealing, cost over the asbestos quote, extra power points)
- Square merchant facility (1.9%) has worked without any problems in my own business. Possibly only criticism is that the customer can not choose which account the money comes out of, the machine chooses the default. We are now trialing Paypal Here, which is similar, but also accepts Paypal payments, 1.95% per transaction and terminal $49.00. This might be an attraction for some people. I suggest we wait another month so I can access the Paypal option.
