Last month's business:

- Jinibara track – fundraiser successful, rocks in place and etched.
- Landscaping – Ross to continue this weekend
- AED – discuss at Mancom meeting
- Green waste/recycling at the tip – Julia received pamphlets from council, interested in getting someone up to do a workshop, Julia will follow up, ideas from Rob include a competition, Cathy will see the school before Mancom, Darren said MBRC still doing recycling but councils forced to look at alternatives.

General business:

- New Members – Ross Hurn, Peter Cox, Lucy Francis, Jase Harper, Kelly Timmons, Rob Whitehead, Crystal Schekoste, Peter Murphy, Quentin & Kylie Birt, Laura McKenzie, Rob Pearson.

- Darren Grimwade Cr – two incidences on road works over weekends resulting in injuries. Council planning road closures to speed up roadworks. Beautification along Mt Nebo road complete. Samford main street finished. Council has an 'asset maintenance plan' acting in a proactive way where people can log jobs eg pot holes, trees etc. In the roads budget money set aside for intersection of Darcy Kelly Rd and Mt Nebo Rd intersection, and Jolly's Lookout. Ross asked for details of this. Darren to look at boundary with BCC re vegetation.
- Di thanked Darren for his commitment to our concerns.
- Pub night – chicken and dahl, international beer day.
- Rob to start advertising Mountain Idol.

Meeting closed: 8:20pm
