Last month's business:

- AED defib training new date Sat 24 August 2pm – Louise Budgen doing the training. Everyone to encourage people to attend. Important to have as many people as possible able to use it.
- Jinibara opening Sun 18 Aug 11am-12pm – Rob L reported that everything was almost ready.

The ceremony will involve two Jinibara elders, Peace'n'Choir, school children, someone to say a few words, and café will be open. Also possibly Troy Brady may perform and have collateral for sale subject to approval from the elders.

Brass plaques have been acquired to be glued to the rocks. Lucy suggested investigating drilling supports into rocks. Rob will investigate. In future more information plaques, possibly with QR codes, will be installed.

- Troy Brady gig – 17 August: P&C doing food. $12 entry. Troy to supply people on the door, MNRA Bar – Di, Rob, Carmel & Ross volunteered.

General business:

- Last pub night – issues relating to excessive noise from people jumping on the floor affecting children below watching videos and incident of dancer swinging on the rafters. To be discussed at Mancom meeting 21 Aug.
- Issue of Council bins – where to now. Suggestion MNRA to meet with Council to discuss future before finalization of project in December. To be discussed at Mancom meeting 21 Aug.

Other business:

- September Pub night – Food being sorted by Julia – chicken & fries.
- Goat Track Madness 25 August. Fundraising for MS research. Donations welcome via website. Goat Track will be closed to vehicles that day. Walkers to start at bottom; there will be marshals & musicians. Wheelchairs & golf cart available if required. Sarah will have coffee & Lion's van at the top.
- Calendar – Heather helping to organise. Will include photos from playgroup & others.
- Film Night 31 August "2040" Community event. 2.30pm for 3:00-4:00pm. Gold Coin donation includes supper. Hiring rate to be confirmed at Mancom meeting.
- Mt Nebo Rd roadworks near Darcy Kelly Rd. Subsidence requiring further excavation. Have environmental impacts been considered? Presumed that Council has done environmental assessment and monitoring.
- MANCOM 21 August 7:30pm at Cathy's. Not dinner.

Meeting closed: 8:25pm
